City of Seal Beach Commends Grief Counseling Team

The City of Seal Beach today (Oct. 14) commended the non-profit Crisis Response Team, which provides trained counselors and victim advocates in times of crisis, for their help in providing assistance and counseling for community residents following the Seal Beach shooting tragedy of Oct. 12.

"We are very appreciative of the tireless efforts of the Crisis Response Team to help our community in the hours and days after the horrible tragedy," said Seal Beach Mayor Pro Tem Gary Miller. "This has affected all of us very deeply. And for those who need professional and trained counselors, their assistance has been invaluable."

If you or a family member needs to visit with a grief counselor, the Crisis Response Team is available.
